WORKERS’ COMPENSATION

Your employer offers workers’ compensation coverage to employees for injuries

Worker’s compensation is a type of insurance coverage that employers must provide to their employees. The cost of workers’ compensation insurance is paid entirely by the employer and may not be deducted from an employee’s wages.

If you are injured or sustain an occupational disease, while at work, you may be entitled to compensation benefits.

If you are injured or contract an occupational disease while at work, you may be entitled to compensation benefits by law. Written notice must be given to your employer within 4 working days of the accident. If you don’t report your injury or occupational disease promptly, your benefits may be reduced.

To obtain forms or information regarding the workers’ compensation system, you may call the Colorado Department of Labor and Employment at 303-318-8441 or 1-888-390-7936.
